An accrediting organization is a “watchman on the wall”. Webster defines accreditation as to give trust or confidence to; to vouch for; to recommend; to furnish with credentials, as an envoy or ambassador. Every accreditation group is not the same. They are different and focused in different areas of accreditation.

Covenant Bible College & Seminary is a member of the Academic Council for Educational Accountability (ACEA). ACEA is a global network of like-minded Christian men and women called to the field of education that provides credibility through accountability. ACEA was founded in 1998 in Colorado Springs, Colorado by C. Peter Wagner, Chancellor of Wagner Leadership Institute. Covenant Bible College & Seminary is accredited with Transworld Accrediting Commission International (TACI) www.transworldaccrediting.com in Riverside, California.

TACI is a professional, federally recognized, non-profit church educational organization that exists to assure the quality and assist in the improvement of the institutions they accredit by establishing an organizational witness to their credibility of performance and integrity. Quality education is the goal at all times. Its purpose is the preparation of quality education in private schools, colleges, and theological seminaries. It is a non-governmental body and makes no claim to be connected with the government.

A degree covers the major taken with that degree. A student or potential student must understand that credits taken in one type of program may or may not transfer to another type program. This is the sole determination of the receiving institution’s main campus.

The job market is highly competitive. Training is specialized in most fields. A graduate in one field may have difficulty in being hired in a field they are not certified for.

By signing this form, I am signifying that I have received the Student College Catalog and I understand the type of degree for which I have applied and neither ACEA, TACI (www.transworldaccrediting.com) nor Covenant Bible College and Seminary, its satellite campus located in Pensacola, Florida nor its main campus in Madison, Florida is responsible for my employment goals.

I understand that the Covenant Bible College and Seminary, the satellite campus located in Pensacola, Florida and its main campus in Madison, Florida is primarily a religious school. Credits are not guaranteed to be accepted by secular or state run programs.
